MONDAY EVENING, MAY 2

A Child's Shocking Discovery.

Yesterday morning, when Jennie Oswald, a girl of eleven years of age, came from her bedroom into the dining room of her home, in Shaler township, near Etnaborough, just beyond the limits of Pittsburg, Pa., she found her father, Charles Oswald, sitting in a chair with his throat cut, and her younger sister, Bessie, lying on a lounge dead. It was a case of suicide on the part of Oswald, and all the signs indicate that he murdered his daughter before cutting his own throat. Oswald was a man of 45 years, a blacksmith, and had lived in Shaler township for lifteen years. He was married twice, and by his first wife had two children. He did not get along with his second wife, being naturally of a morose disposition, and financial diliculties with his wife's family causing trouble. Since leat Christmas they had lived of a morose disposition, and financial diffi-culties with his wife's family causing trou-Since last Christmas they had lived together without exchanging a word until Saturday week last, when Oswald broke the silence. His conversation was then about a farm in Armstrong county, in which they were interested, and which he had grown uneasy about. Saturday afternoon he sent his wife up to see about it. Bessie wanted to go with her step-mother, but the wanted to go with her step-mother, but the father refused to grant her request. At supper that night he gave the children maple syup, saying it was good for colds and coughs. The children said it was bitter, and refused to partake of it. Bessie had been ill, and after supper she lay down on a lounge and fell asleep. Jennie, about nine o'clock, went to bed, and before going started to awaken her sister. Oswald interfered and ordered her to let the child alone. When she came down in the morning, about seven o'clock, she found her father sitting in a chair with his throat cut, and a razor and penknife by his side: Bessie was on the and penknife by his side: Bessie was on the lounge dead, and both were cold. The child had evidently been smothered to death, as a piece of cloth was found stuffed in her mouth. It is supposed that constant brood-ing over his domestic and financial troubles had turned his brain, and that when he sent his wife away he had in contemplation the extermination of himselfand children. Why Jennie did not share the fate of her younger sister will probably never be known.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP, for chil-Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, for children teething, is the prescription of one of the best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and has been used for forty years with never-failing success by millions of mothers for their children. During the process of teething its value is incalculable. It relieves the child from pain, cures dysentery and diarrhea, griping in the bowels, and wind-colic. By giving health to the child it rests the mother. Price 25 cents a bottle.

The GAZETTE is now the oldest paper in the State, and with few exceptions the oldest in the country, and its usefulness has been demonstrated and appreciated during the EIGHTY SEVEN YEARS of its existence. In its columns has always been found a mirror of passing events, and the careful chronicling of the history of what is going on in the world has ever been its aim. It is always welcomed in the household, while in the counting room and workshop it has become invaluable. The GAZETTE has better facilities for obtaining news than any paper outside of the national capital. Situated as it is so close to the great centre of news, it enjoys daily the benefit of the Associated Press dispatches from every part of the world ; hence its patrons can read from its columns in the evening what has transpired that day in every portion of our own domain as well as from every part of the habitable globe. Consequently it is an every day occurrence for the GAZETTE to publish telegrams from the various European capitals twelve and fifteen hours earlier than the morning pa-

Another feature that serves to make the GAZETTE a great desideratum with merchants is its afternoon market reports from New York, Baltimore, Chicago and other

The local department furnishes a full and complete history of everything that occurs in and near the city, and this feature will, as ever, receive careful attention.

Correspondence from Washington, Rich mond and every section of the State, is published regularly, and all events of interest occurring within the bounds of the Commonwealth are to be found in the columns

The GAZETTE's circulation is steadily in creasing, especially among people who consult its advertising columns before purchasing. That this is self-evident may be inferred from the fact that a large country edition-nearly as large as The daily-is sent all over this section of country three times a week, and is read by thousands, most of whom send here or to contiguous cities to make purchases. The advantages of advertising in the GAZETTE are, therefore, ap-
